□ 1308

Mr. MCINTYRE and Mr. SPRATT changed their vote from “aye” to “no.” So the amendment was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. MICA. Mr. Chairman, on rollcall No. 296, the Leach and Lazio amendment to H.R. 4194, I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted “Yes.”

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will rise informally.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. PEASE) assumed the chair.

SUNDRY MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Sundry messages in writing from the President of the United States were communicated to the House by Mr. Edwin Thomas, one of his secretaries.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Committee will resume its sitting.

DEPARTMENTS OF VETERANS AFFAIRS AND HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT, AND INDEPENDENT AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1999

The Committee resumed its sitting. (By unanimous consent, Mr. BONIOR was allowed to speak out of order.)

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Chairman, I have asked to speak out of turn for the purposes of engaging the gentleman from Texas (Mr. ARMEY), the distinguished majority leader, in a colloquy for the purposes of learning the schedule for today, the rest of the week and the following week.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BONIOR. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Chairman, I would like to get through this as quickly as possible. I know that the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and others have some time that they want to spend with respect to our friend and colleague, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES), and we certainly want to make sure that they have a good opportunity for that time.

So, Mr. Chairman, I am pleased to announce that we have concluded legislative business for the week.

The House will next meet on Monday, July 20, at 12:30 p.m. for morning hour and at 2 o'clock p.m. for legislative business. We do not expect any recorded votes before 5 o'clock p.m. on Monday, July 20.

On Monday, July 20, we will consider a number of bills under suspension of the rules, a list of which will be distributed to Members' offices this afternoon.

After suspensions, the House will continue consideration of H.R. 2108, the Bipartisan Campaign Integrity Act of 1997.

On Tuesday, July 21, the House will meet at 9 o'clock a.m. for morning hour and at 10 a.m. to consider the following legislation:

H.R. 4193, the Department of Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, and H.R. 4194, the Department of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development and Independent Agencies Appropriations Act.

On Wednesday, July 22, and the balance of the week, the House will consider H.J.Res. 121, a resolution disapproving of the extension of nondiscriminatory treatment to the products of the People's Republic of China, the Departments of Commerce, Justice, State and Judiciary Appropriations Act, and H.R. 4250, Patient Protection Act.

Mr. Chairman, we also expect to deal with the President's veto of H.R. 1122, the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act of 1997, and, Mr. Chairman, we hope to conclude legislative business for the week by 2 o'clock p.m. on Friday, July 24.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Chairman, I thank my colleague, and I would just make the following comment, that we obviously have a very full and interesting and to some extent controversial schedule next week.

I would note that from the schedule that my friend from Texas read that the discussion on bipartisan campaign finance reform seems to be relegated to 1 day.

□ 1345

The concern that I have, and I think is shared by some on your side of the aisle as well as those of us on this side of the aisle, is we are not going to finish this bill by the next recess. As I understood it, there was a pledge to do that. We have had these pledges in the past. We are concerned, by only devoting one day next week to this bill, that we are not going to finish.

I would like to have some assurances from my colleague from Texas that indeed that is the intention, that we will devote the time that is necessary to finish this bill and move it forward, so we could get a bill that will reform our system by the end of this Congress.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Chairman, if the gentleman will yield further, I thank the gentleman for his expression of concern and interest. I share the gentleman's commitment to completing this work before we leave for the August recess. That is a commitment that will, in fact, be met.

In that regard, let me say we do hope for and will be looking for opportunities in addition to those announced to bring that work back on the floor.

I might further and finally express with respect to this important legislation my appreciation for the floor managers and the other interested parties in this body for the congenial way in which they are managing to work out agreements by which we can better manage these works. It is through their congeniality and inventiveness that I remain confident that we will in fact have a satisfactory completion of this work, where everyone will know and appreciate they are being treated fairly by their own common agreements.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Chairman, I thank my colleague.

If I might just anticipate the remarks of my friend from California (Mr. LEWIS) that will be made shortly, let me say in advance I join him in more fuller remarks that he will be making Tuesday. However, I will withhold my remarks so I can more fully express my appreciation for someone that we have a joint warm feeling for in this institution.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. PEASE) having assumed the chair, Mr. LAHOOD, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 4194) making appropriations for the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and for sundry independent agencies, boards, commissions, corporations, and offices for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1999, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

MAKING IN ORDER AT ANY TIME ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1999, CONSIDERATION OF H.J. RES. 121, DISAPPROVING MOST-FAVORED-NATION TREATMENT TO PRODUCTS OF PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that it be in order at any time on Wednesday, July 22, 1998 to consider in the House the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 121) disapproving the extension of nondiscriminatory treatment (most-favored-nation treatment) to the products of the People's Republic of China; that the joint resolution be considered as read for amendment;

that all points of order against the joint resolution and against its consideration be waived;

that the joint resolution be debatable for 4 hours, equally divided and controlled by the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means in opposition to the resolution and a Member in support of the joint resolution; that pursuant to sections 152 and 153 of the Trade Act of 1974, the previous question be considered as ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion; and that the provisions of sections 152 and 153 of the Trade Act of 1994 shall not otherwise apply to any joint resolution disapproving the extension of most-favored-nation treatment to the People's Republic of China for the remainder of the second session of the 105th Congress.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I understand that there is an agreement on all sides about the division of debate time on this resolution, and I would like to ask the gentleman from New York (Mr. SOLOMON), the distinguished chairman of the Committee on Rules, his understanding of that agreement.

The unanimous consent request provides, I understand, 4 hours of debate, equally divided between supporters and opponents of the Solomon resolution. It is my understanding the 2 hours of the debate in support of the resolution will be controlled by a member of the Committee on Ways and Means, the gentleman from California (Mr. STARK), with the understanding that he will yield half of that time to a majority member of the committee, the gentleman from Nebraska (Mr. CHRISTENSEN); and the 2 hours of debate in opposition to the resolution will be controlled by a member of the Committee on Ways and Means, the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. CRANE), with the understanding he will yield half of his time to the gentleman from California (Mr. MATSUI).

I would ask the gentleman, is that the intent of this unanimous consent request?

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentlewoman, if she would
