

with the housing that they have. So housing is bedrock to families. If we care about families, then we have to care about housing. And what we are doing right now on the floor, and we will continue next week when we come back, is to continue to devastate the supply of housing for the poor.

We will follow that with education. Next week I understand the Labor and HHS appropriation bill will be on the floor, and that is where we have the denial of the opportunity to invest in education. We must all unite now behind a Caring Majority Appropriations Priorities Package for Working Families.

Every Member of the House who cares about families, and everybody says they care about families, I hope they will open their eyes and see what helps families and what hurts families. It hurts families not to have a decent minimum wage. It hurts families not to have as much help as possible from the government to guarantee that their children get an education which would allow them to move out of poverty. It hurts families when emergency help from programs like LIHEAP, the provision of fuel for the elderly, is denied, because that means that the family somewhere else has to make some sacrifices to take care of the elderly people.

We must all unite behind the Caring Majority Appropriations Priorities Package for working families. End the hostility and let us promote working families.
