Mr. BROWN of Ohio changed his vote from "aye" to "no."

Messrs. KASICH, SCARBOROUGH and SANFORD changed their vote from "no" to "aye."

So the amendment was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Chairman, I rise today in support of the necessary level of $98 million in funding for the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

As an advocate of quality educational opportunities for all our children, it is my belief that adequate funding of the Arts is important to providing a well rounded education. If you have seen a play, visited a museum, read a book of poetry or short stories, chances are you have participated in an event made possible through the NEA. Learning is a lifelong journey, and learning the arts begins early. It is nourished through quality programs in schools, homes and the communities, and continues to the very end of our days.

The NEA costs each American about 36 cents per year, less than one-hundredth of 1% of the federal budget. Its mission is designed to foster the excellence, diversity and vitality of the arts in the US, and to broaden public access to the arts. The NEA makes the Arts accessible to more Americans, promotes Arts education, and forges partnerships with local, state, regional, and federal arts organizations. Millions of children, regardless of their economic background, now receive formal arts education in local public school systems, helping to improve their overall academic performance. In North Carolina, the NEA has supported many wonderful projects of great cultural and educational value to the citizens of my great State including the American Dance Festival and the North Carolina Symphony Society.

Mr. Speaker, as we approach the 21st Century, we need to be sure that we provide every necessary tool to encourage creativity in our children. Exposure to the Arts provides access to the rich history of the past and the key to the future. We must continue to support this effort and ensure funding for this important agency.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 4193—Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Bill, 1999. This bill appropriates $40,812,000 in funding for the Historic Preservation Fund which is an essential element in the preservation and restoration of historic buildings and structures at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). These buildings will be ranked and receive funding in accordance to actual need.

The National Park Service has ranked twelve HBCUs that are considered to have the most endangered historic sites. Those HBCUs, in order of rank are:

1. Allen University (SC)
2. Tougaloo College (MS)
3. Knoxville University (TN)
4. Fisk University (TN)
5. Claflin University (SC)
6. Talladega College (AL)
7. Rust College (MS)
8. Stillman College (AL)
9. Concordia College (AL)
10. Miles College (AL)
11. Voorhees College (SC)
12. Selma College (AL)

The preservation and restoration of the historical sites at the campuses of Rust College and Tougaloo College, both located in Mississippi, have been a personal endeavor of mine for many years. These institutions have historically educated African-Americans and other disadvantaged populations of this country as well as produced a large percentage of our nation's minority doctors, lawyers, educators and other professionals.

HBCUs also address and intervene in issues of violence, hopelessness, poverty, and illiteracy through research, community service and other projects. I, myself, am a graduate of an HBCU, Tougaloo College, which has notably been the site of many significant events in America's history. Consequently, I have seen first hand the need for safe, sanitary, and appropriate facilities and acknowledge the insufficient endowments for the restoration and maintenance of buildings at HBCUs.

All of the many HBCUs will continue to make valuable and much needed contributions to all of our citizens with the continued investments and support from federal agencies and departments through the passage of this bill.

The CHAIRMAN. No further amendments being in order, under the rule, the Committee rises.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD) having assumed the chair, Mr. LATOURETTE, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 4193) making appropriations for the Department of the Interior and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1999, and for other purposes, pursuant to House Resolution 504, he reported the bill, as amended pursuant to that rule, back to the House with further sundry amendments adopted by the Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

Is a separate vote demanded on any amendment? If not, the Chair will put them en gros.

The amendments were agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT OFFERED BY MR. OBEY

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, I offer a motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, in its present form, I certainly am.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. OBEY moves to recommit the bill, H.R. 4193, to the Appropriations Committee with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

At the end of the bill add the following new section:

SEC. . Notwithstanding any other provision of law, none of the funds made available in this Act (and especially no funds for the National Endowment for the Arts) shall be made available unless Sidney R. Yates stands for election to the 106th Congress from the 9th District of Illinois.

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Speaker, I reserve a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Ohio reserves a point of order.

The gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, since the day I came here, SID YATES, more than anyone else, has been associated with this bill year after year. I think it is safe to say that, without SID YATES' leadership, there would be no funding for the arts and humanities in this bill.

On the environmental front, in dealing with public lands, no one can question that SID YATES has, indeed, been Mr. Public Interest on those issues. In so many fields, he has set the highest example of what public service is supposed to be all about. He has been fighting for justice. He has been fighting for humanity and decency in the actions that our government takes both at home and abroad. In defense of the individual against both government and corporate power, SID has had no peer.

He has graced this institution and honored this country with his service here. He has enriched the lives of each and every one of us who have served with him. He is indeed the Gentleman from Illinois.

I want to say to the House the greatest debate that I ever saw in this place never took place in this Chamber. It took place in the full Committee on Appropriations, a debate of titans between SID YATES and Eddie Boland on the SST many years ago.

I remember SID opening up that debate with a magnificent attack on the committee position. Eddie Boland responded with an incredibly able and eloquent defense of the committee position. With each speaker, we knew that the other could not possibly top what had just been said; and, yet, they continued to do so for well over an hour.

At the end of that debate—and this is the only time I have ever seen this in all of the years I have served here—the committee stood and gave each of them a standing ovation. In my view, that is what the gentleman from Illinois deserves right now.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Ohio (Mr. REGULA) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. LIVINGSTON), the chairman of the full committee.

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I have served in the Congress for the last 21 years. I have served on the Committee on Appropriations since 1980 and have been involved in lots of controversial, sometimes partisan, sometimes not altogether clear debates about one issue or another.

But when one thinks in terms of the orderliness of this House, of the decorum, of the presentation of cogent incisive arguments, the ability to present those arguments without rancor and without excessive partisanship, one has to think of SID YATES.

SID has been a gentleman for as long as I have known him and for a lot longer than that. He has been an outstanding Member of this Congress. I dare say, except for one short, brief time that he stepped down and ran for Senate and then came back 2 years later, he is currently the longest-serving Member of Congress. He is also one of the most exemplary and one of those with whom I am proudest to serve. We wish you well, SID.

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. ARMEY).

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me. I might address my comments to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. YATES). Every summer of my life since 1985, I have found myself in a contest with the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. YATES). We have never been in anything other than rigorous disagreement on the subject at hand.

But in all those summers and in all those contests, while I cannot recall Mr. YATES ever did a kind thing to me, he was never unkind in the manner in which we dealt with one another. He was a gentleman. He was considerate.

On occasions, he even gave me advice, perhaps what might have been good advice, like "young man, you talk too much," but he was kind even when making that point.

Now I find myself realizing that, in the next summer I come to, I will not have my opportunity for the continuing contest with the distinguished gentleman from Illinois (Mr. YATES). If I may, let me say, I will miss you, but I will enjoy my summer or two. Thank you, and I hope you do the same.

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Speaker, before I make the final comments, I also want to mention that this will be the last time working on the Interior bill for the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. MCDADE), one of our really cherished Members, one that we all care a lot about and all respect. Where is he at?

Also, a last time for a rather recent vintage member of our committee, but a very thoughtful Member and one that I have treasured, the representative from Colorado (Mr. DAVID SKAGGS).

□ 1530

Mr. Speaker, let me say about SID, we have said a lot. Words cannot describe him. He is fair, he is a gentleman, he is thoughtful and he is a person of absolute integrity. He has a wonderful helpmate, his wife, Addie, and I want to mention her because she has been very much a part of SID's life.

I want to thank you, SID. I enjoy symphonies a lot more than I did when I started on the committee 24 years ago.

We wish you well.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my point of order.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, I most reluctantly withdraw my motion to recommend.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on passage of the bill.

Pursuant to clause 7, rule XV, the yeas and nays are ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 245, nays 181, not voting 8, as follows:
