E. Patrik, from the United States as a reward for information leading to the arrest of Theodore J. Kaczynski in the "Unabomber" case, then—

(1) their gross income shall not include (and no deduction shall be allowed to them with respect to) such amounts; and

(2) any payment by them to victims and their families in such case shall not be treated as a gift for purposes of subtitle B of such Code and shall not be included in gross income of the recipients.

(c) VICTIMS AND THEIR FAMILIES.—For purposes of this section, the Attorney General of the United States or her delegate shall identify the individuals who are to be treated as victims and their families in the "Unabomber" case.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be agreed to, the bill, as amended, be read three times, and passed, and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, that the title be appropriately amended, without any intervening action.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment (No. 3839) was agreed to.

The bill (H.R. 2513), as amended, was considered read the third time and passed.

The title was amended so as to read: Amend the title so as to read: "A bill to provide tax-free treatment of reward monies devoted to the victims of 'Unabomber' Theodore Kaczynski."

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, the Senate has done the right thing by agreeing to support David R. Kaczynski in his effort to donate more money to the victims of his brother, "Unabomber" Theodore J. Kaczynski. I hope the House of Representatives will now follow suit. This is a rare opportunity for Congress to write a happy ending to a sad story, and we should seize it. The U.S. Congress should not be in the business of discouraging acts of altruism.

In August, Mr. Kaczynski and his wife, Linda E. Patrik, constituents of mine from Schenectady, New York, received a $1 million reward from the FBI for information leading to the 1996 arrest of Theodore Kaczynski. Immediately upon receiving the reward, David Kaczynski pledged that after payment of taxes and attorney's fees, all reward monies would go to the Unabomber's victims and their families. Mr. Kaczynski then contacted my office to ask whether Congress could provide, through legislation, that no tax be imposed so that a greater amount would be passed on to the victims. The uniquely compelling case for this measure was clear from the moment David Kaczynski first contacted me. I agreed and immediately introduced legislation, which was cosponsored by Senators D'AMATO, BAUCUS and BURNS.

Since then, our legislation has received the support of others. Senators ROTH, HATCH, DODD, LAUTENBERG, and MOSELEY-BRAUN have all stated their strong support for the measure, and in the House, Congressman MIKE McNULTY and AMO HOUGHTON of New York, both Ways and Means Committee members, have introduced companion legislation.

The Kaczynski family's decision was a wonderful, selfless act of humanity. Congress ought to applaud and support this fine example. It is good public policy to encourage reward recipients to donate those proceeds to the victims of violent crime. Without this legislation, federal taxes on the reward would total approximately $355,000. In other words, the Federal Treasury would get that money instead of the victims. It would be unjust for the Federal government to take that money when we have the power to pass it on to the victims.

I thank Senators for supporting this important measure, and I urge its early enactment.
