FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

47 CFR Parts 0 and 19

[FCC 00-365]

Nonpublic Information

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Commission is amending its rules to establish a procedure to deal with the improper release of nonpublic information. The current rules prohibit the unauthorized release of nonpublic information by Commission officials. The revised rules add language requiring persons regulated by or practicing before the Commission who receive written nonpublic information to return it to the Commission's Office of the Inspector General without further distribution or use of the material. The amended rules also highlight the sanctions available to the Commission to address willful violation of the rules by either employees of the Commission or individuals who are regulated by or practicing before it.

DATES: Effective December 4, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Patrick J. Carney, Office of General Counsel, (202) 418-1720.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

1. Recent unauthorized disclosures of nonpublic internal Commission draft orders and documents in market-sensitive proceedings prompt us to adopt this order to amend § 19.735-203 of our rules, 47 CFR 19.735-203. Section 19.735-203 currently governs the disclosure and misuse by Commission personnel of nonpublic information that is contained in Commission records or obtained in connection with Commission employment. The purpose of the amendment is to emphasize the responsibilities of Commission employees in this area and to provide guidance to persons who receive nonpublic documents under circumstances where it appears that the release of the documents was either inadvertent or otherwise unauthorized.

2. Currently, § 19.735-203 prohibits the unauthorized release of nonpublic information, including documents, by Commission officials. Specifically, § 19.735-203(a) states that "[e]xcept as authorized in writing by the Chairman

* * *, or otherwise as authorized by the Commission or its rules, nonpublic information shall not be disclosed, directly or indirectly, to any person outside the commission.” Such nonpublic information clearly includes drafts of Commission orders, memoranda and other documents (such as e-mail) containing internal staff recommendations. See 5 CFR 2635.703 (“nonpublic information is information that * * * has not been made available to the general public” including documents that are “designated as confidential by an agency.”). We take this opportunity to emphasize that, pursuant to § 19.735–107 of our rules, employees that disclose such documents (or their contents) are subject to significant disciplinary action up to and including removal for cause, in addition to any other penalty prescribed by law. See 47 CFR 19.735–107. Our amendment of § 19.735–203 cross-references this rule governing the Commission’s disciplinary and remedial authority.

3. Our rules prohibiting the disclosure of nonpublic information serve to protect the integrity of the Commission’s deliberative processes. Disclosure by Commission staff of draft orders, internal confidential memoranda and nonpublic information violates these rules, and we will vigorously investigate and address violations of these rules by Commission personnel.

4. While our existing rules and our guidance in this order make clear our commitment to ensure that Commission personnel do not disclose nonpublic documents, the existing rules do not address the steps that are to be taken by persons regulated by or practicing before the Commission who receive such documents. The revision to § 19.735–203 adds language requiring such persons who come into possession of written nonpublic information (including written material transmitted in electronic form), the release of which they know or reasonably should know was either inadvertent or otherwise unauthorized, to promptly return such written nonpublic information to the Commission’s Office of the Inspector General, without further distribution or use of the material.

5. Persons regulated by or practicing before the FCC may be subject to appropriate sanctions for willful violation of this section. In the case of attorneys practicing before the Commission such sanctions may include disciplinary action under the provisions of § 1.24 of the Commission’s rules. (Cf., D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 1.15 and Opinion no. 256, adopted May 16, 1995. See also: ABA Formal Opinion 92–368, Nov. 10, 1992; Florida Bar Op. 93–3, Feb. 1, 1994; and Oregon Bar Formal Op. No. 1998–150, approved Apr. 1998).

6. The revision also adds a cross reference to § 19.735–203 in a new § 0.458 of the Commission’s rules, 47 CFR 0.458. New § 0.458 is within the Commission’s part 0 rules dealing with public and nonpublic information.

7. The requirements set forth in 5 U.S.C. 553(b) and (d) pertaining to notice and comment and the effective date in rulemaking proceedings do not apply to this amendment because it concerns matters of agency organization, procedure or practice. See 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A); 553(d).

8. Accordingly, pursuant to sections 4(i), 4(j), 303(r), 47 U.S.C. 4(i), 4(j), 303(r), parts 0 and 19 of the Commission’s rules, 47 CFR part 19, ARE AMENDED as set forth, and is effective December 4, 2000.

Any person regulated by or practicing before the Commission who willfully violates this section by failing to promptly notify the Commission’s Office of the Inspector General of the receipt of written nonpublic information (including written material transmitted in electronic form) that he knew or should have known was released inadvertently or in any otherwise unauthorized manner may be subject to appropriate sanctions by the Commission. In the case of attorneys practicing before the Commission, such sanctions may include disciplinary action under the provisions of § 1.24 of this chapter.
