

effective immediately upon publication today in the Federal Register, is based on the good cause exceptions in 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B), (d)(3), and 21 CFR 10.40(e)(1). Under these provisions, FDA may issue a regulation without notice and comment when the agency determines that such procedures are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest. Seeking public comment before implementing this stay would be contrary to the public interest.

The current, second-tier sodium provisions are scheduled to take effect on January 1, 2003. To comply with this effective date, manufacturers would have to reformulate and/or relabel their products within a short timeframe, a process that could involve significant expense. As FDA is currently preparing to issue a proposed rule concerning "healthy" sodium levels, it would be contrary to the public interest to require manufacturers to comply with the second-tier sodium levels, even as the agency considers whether alternative levels may be more appropriate. Accordingly, a further stay of the second-tier sodium levels is warranted. This stay will give the agency time to issue its proposed rule, consider comments, and complete the rulemaking. The stay also will allow time for manufacturers to make changes necessitated by the rulemaking (e.g., reformulating or relabeling products and using up old label stock). Finally, the January 1, 2006, effective date should coincide with the uniform compliance dates for food labeling regulations. The next uniform compliance date is scheduled for January 1, 2004, and FDA typically sets these dates to occur every 2 years (see 65 FR 69666).

Although FDA has determined that it is in the public interest to issue this rule without prior public comment, interested persons are invited to submit comments on whether this extension of the stay of the second-tier sodium levels should be modified or revoked (see 21 CFR 10.40(e)(1)). Two copies of any comments are to be submitted, except that individuals may submit one copy. Comments are to be identified with the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document. Received comments may be seen in the office above between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

FDA encourages manufacturers who can meet the second-tier sodium levels for particular foods and still produce an acceptable product to do so, even as the agency proceeds with rulemaking.

For the reasons set forth in the preamble, 21 CFR 101.65(d)(2)(ii)(C), (d)(3)(ii)(C), and (d)(4)(ii)(B) are stayed until January 1, 2006.

Dated: April 29, 2002.

Margaret M. Dotzel,

Associate Commissioner for Policy.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

As a part of continuing efforts to reorganize the part numbering system of title 27 CFR, ATF is removing part 251, Importation of Distilled Spirits, Wines, and Beers, in its entirety, and is recodifying the regulations as 27 CFR part 27. This change improves the organization of title 27 CFR. ATF intends to update and clarify the regulations in this part, but believes that such revisions would be best undertaken at a later time through a notice of proposed rulemaking with public comment.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104–13, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, and its implementing regulations, 5 CFR part 1320, do not apply to this final rule because there are no new or revised recordkeeping or reporting requirements.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this rule under the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553), the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply. We sent a copy of this final rule to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment in accordance with 26 U.S.C. 7805(f); we received no comments.

Executive Order 12866

This final rule is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866. Accordingly, this final rule is not subject to the analysis required by this Executive Order.

Administrative Procedure Act

Because this final rule merely makes technical amendments to improve the clarity and organization of the regulations, it is unnecessary to issue this final rule with notice and public comment procedure under 5 U.S.C. 553(b). Similarly, because this final rule makes no substantial changes and is merely the recodification of existing regulations, good cause is found that it is unnecessary to subject this final rule to the effective date limitation of 5 U.S.C. 553(d).

BILLING CODE 4810–31–P

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURYBureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms*27 CFR Part 44

[T.D. ATF—480]

RIN 1512—AC36

Delegation of Authority

AGENCY: Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF), Treasury.
ACTION: Treasury decision, final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule places most ATF authorities contained in its Exportation of Tobacco Products and Cigarette Papers and Tubes, Without Payment of Tax, or With Drawback of Tax regulations with the “appropriate ATF officer”. Consequently, this final rule removes the definitions of, and references to, specific officers subordinate to the Director and the word “region.” This final rule also requires that persons file documents required by these regulations with the “appropriate ATF officer” or in accordance with the instructions on the ATF form. Concurrently with this Treasury Decision, ATF Order 1130.31 is being issued and will be made available as specified in this rule. Through this order, the Director has delegated most of the authorities to the appropriate ATF officers and specified the ATF officers with whom applications, notices and other reports, which are not ATF forms, are filed. In addition, this final rule makes a few corrections and miscellaneous changes.
