SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The authority to issue this rule is vested in the Secretary of the Interior by 5 U.S.C. 301 and 25 U.S.C. 2 and 9; and 25 U.S.C. 13, which authorizes appropriations for “Indian judges.” See Tillet v. Hodel, 730 F. Supp., 381 (W.D. Okla. 1990), aff’d 931 F.2d 636 (10th Cir. 1991), United States v. Clapox, 35 F. 575 (D. Ore. 1888). This rule is published in the exercise of the rulemaking authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs in the Departmental Manual at 209 DM 8.1.

On January 29, 1993, the United States of America (“Grantor”), by the Secretary of the Interior acting pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 2202 and 465 and the regulation at 25 CFR 151.3(a)(2) and (3), for the purpose of placing the real property described below (the "property") in trust for the equal benefit of the Indian Pueblos of New Mexico (the "Pueblos") as tenants in common, and in consideration of the reconveyance of the property by the Pueblos to the Grantor, and other valuable consideration, conveyed, transferred and quitclaim to itself in trust jointly for the equal benefit of the following Pueblos:

Pueblo of Acoma
Pueblo of Cochiti
Pueblo of Isleta
Pueblo of Jemez
Pueblo of Laguna
Pueblo of Nambe
Pueblo of San Felipe
Pueblo of Sandia
Pueblo of San Ildefonso
Pueblo of Santa Ana
Pueblo of San Juan
Pueblo of Santa Clara
Pueblo of Santo Domingo
Pueblo of Taos
Pueblo of Tesuque
Pueblo of Zia
Pueblo of Zuni

All of its right, title and interest in and to the following real estate: A tract of land containing 44.201 acres, situated within the east half (E $\frac{1}{2}$), Section 7 and the west half (W $\frac{1}{2}$), Section 8, T.10 N., R.3 E., New Mexico Principal Meridian, Bernalillo County, State of New Mexico, subject to all existing reservations and recorded at the Land Titles and Records Office, Albuquerque, New Mexico, as Document No. 050-001-93.

On May 24, 1994, 1.9592 acres was transferred to the 19 Pueblos and includes the tract of land being the original Old Indian School boundary, that portion of the Indian Health Service situation within the east half (E $\frac{1}{2}$), Section 7, T.10 N., R.3 E., New Mexico Principal Meridian, Bernalillo County, New Mexico, subject to all existing reservations and recorded at the Land Titles and Records Office, Albuquerque, New Mexico, as Document No. 050-001-97.

Trust status of the Albuquerque Indian School property has been in litigation since 1993. The December 2002 Federal district court decision in Neighbors for Rational Development v. Gale Norton, Secretary of the Interior, CIV. 99-0059 (D.N.M.), upheld the validity of the trust transfer to the Pueblos. Pursuant to the Master Plan for Development and Environmental review based thereon, the Albuquerque Indian School property will be used primarily for office buildings and economic development activities for the 19 Pueblos. The Joint Powers Agreement implemented between the city of Albuquerque and the 19 Pueblos provides generally for city services on the property and clarifies jurisdiction for non-Indians. The jurisdiction of this court shall provide for protection of lives, persons, and property of people working on the property, economic development projects and visitors to the Albuquerque Indian School location until the local Pueblos establish a tribal court of their own.

Both the Albuquerque Indian School and the Santa Fe Indian School properties are held in trust by the Federal Government for the benefit of the 19 Pueblos and a consensus is required to establish a tribal court that will represent all the Pueblos. The 19 Pueblos have not been able to reach a consensus within this initial time frame even though meetings were held with the Pueblos in an attempt to identify a sponsoring Pueblo to assume the lead in establishing a tribal court for the Albuquerque Indian School property. It does not appear likely that in the immediate future the 19 Pueblos will reach this consensus; therefore, it is necessary for the amendment to part 11 that places the Albuquerque Indian School property on the list of CFR Courts, as an addition to the Santa Fe Indian School property, to become a permanent listing. The jurisdiction of this CFR Court will remain the same as that published in the Federal Register on July 2, 2002, at 67 FR 44353, for the Santa Fe Indian School property, including the Indian Health Hospital, and now with the addition of the Albuquerque Indian School property. The Pueblos, however, will work in conjunction with the Southwest Regional Office to establish a tribal court to exercise jurisdiction at the Santa Fe Indian School property and the Albuquerque Indian School property at which time the Pueblos may request the Secretary to remove the Santa Fe Indian School and Albuquerque Indian School as a CFR Court.

Judges of the Court of Indian Offenses shall be authorized to exercise all authority provided under 25 CFR part 11, including: Subpart D—Criminal Offenses; Subpart H—Appellate Proceedings; Subpart J—Juvenile Offender Procedure; issuance of arrest and search warrants pursuant to 25 CFR 11.302 and 11.305 and section 4(2)(A) of the Indian Law Enforcement Reform Act, Public Law 101-379, 104 Stat. 473 (August 18, 1990). Officials of the Bureau of Indian Affairs have already set up the permanent Court of Indian Offenses pursuant to 25 CFR 11.100(a) for the Southwest Region to address a similar law enforcement need at the Santa Fe Indian School property. This final rule will not authorize judges to exercise the following authority under 25 CFR part 11: Subpart E—Civil Actions; Subpart F—Domestic Relations; Subpart G—Probate Proceedings; Subpart I—Children's Court; and Subpart K—Minor-in-Need-of-Care Procedure.

The establishment of this court is based upon the need for a code to be established for law enforcement staff operating on the Albuquerque Indian School property.

Determination To Publish a Direct Final Rule Effective Immediately

In accordance with the requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553(B)), we have determined that publishing a proposed rule would be impractical because of the potential harm that could result from the lack of a court with jurisdiction over the Albuquerque Indian School property. We are therefore publishing this change as a final rule with request for comments.

The Bureau of Indian Affairs has determined it appropriate to make the rule effective immediately by waiving the requirement of publication 30 days in advance of the effective date found at 5 U.S.C. 553(d). This is because of the critical need to expedite establishment of this court to fill the void in law enforcement at the Albuquerque Indian School property, and the imminent increase in visitors to the grounds in question. It is in the public interest and the interest of the Pueblos not to delay implementation of this amendment. Accordingly, this final rule is effective immediately.

We invite comments on any aspect of this rule and we will revise the rule if comments warrant. Send comments on this rule to the address in the ADDRESSES section.

Regulatory Planning and Review (Executive Order 12866)

In accordance with the criteria in Executive Order 12866, this rule is not a significant regulatory action. OMB makes the final determination under Executive Order 12866.

(a) This rule will not have an annual economic effect of $100 million or adversely affect an economic sector, productivity, jobs, the environment, or other units of government. A cost-benefit and economic analysis is not required. The establishment of this property to an existing Court of Indian Offenses is estimated to cost less than $200,000 annually to operate. The cost associated with the operation of this Court will be born by the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Pueblos.

(b) This rule will not create inconsistencies with other agencies' actions. The Department of the Interior through the Bureau of Indian Affairs has the sole responsibility and authority to establish Courts of Indian Offenses on Indian reservations.

(c) This rule will not materially effect entitlements, grants, user fees, loan programs, or the rights and obligations of their recipients. The establishment of this Court of Indian Offenses will not affect any program rights of the 19 Pueblos. Its primary function will be to administer justice for misdemeanor offenses within the Albuquerque Indian School property. The court's jurisdiction will be limited to criminal offense provided in 25 CFR part 11.

(d) This rule will not raise novel legal or policy issues. The Solicitor analyzed and upheld the Department of the Interior's authority to establish Courts of Indian Offenses in a memorandum dated February 28, 1935. The Solicitor found that authority to rest principally in the statutes placing supervision of the Indians in the Secretary of the Interior 25 U.S.C. 2 and 9, and 25 U.S.C. 13, which authorizes appropriations for "Indian judges." The United States Supreme Court recognized the authority of the Secretary to promulgate regulations with respect to Courts of Indian Offenses in United States v. Clapox, 35 F. 575 (D. Ore. 1888).

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs, certifies that this rule will not have a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities as defined under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). An initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is not required.

Accordingly, a Small Entity Compliance Guide is not required. The amendment to 25 CFR 11.100(a) will establish the addition of the Albuquerque Indian School at Albuquerque, New Mexico, to the existing Court of Indian Offenses with limited criminal jurisdiction over Indians within a limited geographical area at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Accordingly, there will be no impact on any small entities in New Mexico.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804(2), the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act. This rule:

(a) Does not have an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more. The establishment of this court of Indian Offenses is estimated to cost less than $200,000 annually to operate. The cost associated with the operation of this Court will be born by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

(b) Will not cause a major increase in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries, Federal, State, or local government agencies, or geographic regions. This Court will administer misdemeanor justice for Indians located within the boundaries of the Albuquerque Indian School property, Albuquerque, New Mexico, and will not have any cost or price impact on any other entities in the geographical region.

(c) Does not have significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or the ability of U.S.-based enterprises. This Court will administer misdemeanor justice for Indians located within the boundaries of the Albuquerque Indian School, Albuquerque, New Mexico, and will not have an adverse impact on competition, investment, productivity, innovation, or the ability of U.S.-based enterprises to compete with foreign-based enterprises.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

In accordance with the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (2 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.):

(a) This rule will not "significantly or uniquely" affect small governments. A Small Government Agency Plan is not required. The establishment of this Court of Indian Offenses will not have jurisdiction to affect any rights of the small governments. Its primary function will be to administer justice for misdemeanor offenses within the Albuquerque Indian School grounds. Its jurisdiction will be limited to criminal offenses provided in 25 CFR part 11.

(b) This rule will not produce a Federal mandate of $100 million or greater in any year; i.e., it is not a "significant regulatory action" under the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

Takings Implication Assessment (Executive Order 12630)

In accordance with Executive Order 12630, the rule does not have significant takings implications. A takings implication assessment is not required. The amendment to 25 CFR 11.100(a) will establish an addition of the Albuquerque Indian School property, Albuquerque, New Mexico, with limited criminal jurisdiction over Indians within a limited geographical area to the existing Santa Fe, New Mexico Court of Indian Offenses. Accordingly, there will be no jurisdictional basis to adversely affect any property interest because the court's jurisdiction is solely personal jurisdiction over Indians.

Federalism (Executive Order 13132)

In accordance with Executive Order 13132, the rule does not have significant federalism effects. A federalism assessment is not required. The Solicitor found that authority to rest principally in the statutes placing supervision of the Indians in the Secretary of the Interior, 25 U.S.C. 2 and 9; and 25 U.S.C. 13, which authorizes appropriations for "Indian judges." The United States Supreme Court recognized the authority of the Secretary to promulgate regulations with respect to Courts of Indian Offenses in United States v. Clapox, 35 F. 575 (D. Ore. 1888).

Civil Justice Reform (Executive Order 12988)

In accordance with Executive Order 12988, the Office of the Solicitor has determined that the rule does not unduly burden the judicial system and meets the requirements of section 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of the Order. The Solicitor analyzed and upheld the Department of the Interior's authority to establish Courts of Indian Offenses in a memorandum dated February 28, 1935. The Solicitor found that authority to rest principally in the statutes placing supervision of the Indians in the Secretary of the Interior, 25 U.S.C. 2 and 9; and 25 U.S.C. 13, which authorizes appropriations for "Indian judges." The United States Supreme Court recognized the authority of the Secretary to promulgate regulations with respect to Courts of Indian Offenses in United States v. Clapox, 35 F. 575 (D. Ore. 1888). Part 11 also requires the establishment of an appeals court; hence the judicial system defined in Executive Order 12988 will not normally be involved in this judicial process.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This regulation does not require an information collection under the Paperwork Reduction Act. The information collection is not covered by an existing OMB approval. An OMB form 83-I has not been prepared and has not been approved by the Office of Policy Analysis. No information is being collected as a result of this Court existence on, or its limited criminal misdemeanor jurisdiction over Indians within the exterior boundaries of the Albuquerque Indian School property, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

National Environmental Policy Act

We have analyzed this rule in accordance with the criteria of the National Environmental Policy Act and 516 DM. This rule does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment. An environmental impact statement/assessment is not required. The establishment of this Court of Indian Offenses conveys personal jurisdiction over the criminal misdemeanor actions of Indians with the additional inclusion of the exterior boundaries of the Albuquerque Indian School and does not have any impact on the environment.

Consultation and Coordination With Indian Tribal Governments (Executive Order 13175)

In accordance with the President's memorandum of April 29, 1994, "Government-to-Government Relations with Native American Tribal Governments" (59 FR 22951), Executive Order 13175, and 512 DM 2, we have evaluated potential effects on federally recognized Indian tribes and determined the federally recognized Indian tribes are not affected by this rule, except for the 19 Pueblos in New Mexico. The Court of Indian Offenses will remain in existence until such time as they establish a tribal court to provide for a law and order code and a judicial system to deal with law and order on the additional trust land at the Albuquerque Indian School in accordance with 25 CFR 11.100(c). The establishment of this court is consistent with the Department's trust responsibility and with the unique government-to-government relationship that exists between the Federal Government and Indian tribes.
