

jobs. It requires States to obligate 50 percent of the highway and transit funding within 180 days, or the Transportation Department can reclaim some of the States' highway and transportation funding in the bill. So there are incentives to get this money out quickly to help stimulate this economy.

Finally, Madam Speaker, let me say that this really is a defining moment. People are looking to their government for help. They are looking for us to take big, bold steps. They are looking at us the same way that people looked at Franklin Roosevelt during the Great Depression to come and try to put together a package to help get people back to work.

Well, that's what we're trying to do here. Madam Speaker, I will say this, I am proud to be on the floor today debating this rule which will pave the way for a debate on this Economic Recovery and Reinvestment Act, because it shows that this government, once again, has a conscience.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on ordering the previous question.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. DREIER. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question will be postponed.

PROVIDING FOR AN ADJOURNMENT OF THE HOUSE

Mr. MCGOVERN. Madam Speaker, I send to the desk a privileged concurrent resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. CON. RES. 26

That when the House adjourns on the legislative day of Wednesday, January 28, 2009, on a motion offered pursuant to this concurrent resolution by its Majority Leader or his designee, it stand adjourned until 2 p.m. on Monday, February 2, 2009, or until the time of any reassembly pursuant to section 2 of this concurrent resolution, whichever occurs first; and that when the House adjourns on the legislative day of Wednesday, February 4, 2009, on a motion offered pursuant to this concurrent resolution by its Majority Leader or his designee, it stand adjourned until 2 p.m. on Monday, February 9, 2009, or until the time of any reassembly pursuant to section 2 of this concurrent resolution, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 2. The Speaker or her designee, after consultation with the Minority Leader, shall notify the Members of the House to reassemble at such place and time as she may designate if, in her opinion, the public interest shall warrant it.

The concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, proceedings will resume on questions previously postponed.

Votes will be taken in the following order: ordering the previous question on House Resolution 87; adopting House Resolution 87; ordering the previous question on House Resolution 88; and adopting House Resolution 88.

The first electronic vote will be conducted as a 15-minute vote. Remaining electronic votes will be conducted as 5-minute votes.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF S. 181, LILLY LEDBETTER FAIR PAY ACT OF 2009

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the vote on ordering the previous question on House Resolution 87, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on ordering the previous question.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 252, nays 175, not voting 5, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). Less than 2 minutes remain on this vote.

□ 1430

So the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

HONORING JACK KELLIHER ON 30 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE HOUSE

(Mr. PASCRELL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. PASCRELL. I want to recognize and pay tribute to a person, Madam Speaker, who has dedicated 30 years of service to his government, John Francis Kelliher, Jr., or Jack, as he is known, Deputy Sergeant at Arms for police services and congressional relations in House offices. How many of you know the true extent of his contribution to our work and the activity that takes place in and around this Chamber?

Please allow me to introduce a person who, to most of us, needs no introduction. Newer Members may not be as aware of this very special person that we honor today, a true gentleman the rest of us have come to respect and admire.

Jack began his career on the Hill as a member of the Capitol Police force soon after arriving from his native Boston. During his 8½ years on the force, Jack took part in thwarting two incidents which easily could have escalated into very serious breaches of House security.

After leaving the police force, Jack spent the next 12½ years in Chamber security, a unit under the direction of the House Sergeant at Arms charged with securing access to the House Chamber and the area immediately surrounding it. Most of us have come to know him in that capacity. More recently, Jack has held the titles of Assistant Sergeant at Arms and “Keeper of the Mace,” a position of trust he has maintained with honor and with his customary dignity and dependability.

His decision to leave us is received with mixed emotions. He is leaving on his own terms. Wouldn't we all want that to happen as well? Jack and his lovely wife, Nancy, have decided to make St. Augustine, Florida, their new home. It is a decision I'm certain their two children, John and Tara, support wholeheartedly. Free vacations in Florida for life.

It's always tough to say goodbye, Jack. We know we will miss you, but he has decided to leave, and we all wish him well. His parents, John and Elizabeth, would be so proud of him today, as we are for his embodiment of all that is good in the service of his country. Thank you, personally, Jack. And may God bless you and your family as you embark on this new adventure.

Now get out of this cold and run to the sun.

Madam Speaker, I yield to my good friend, the Honorable ZACH WAMP from Tennessee.

Mr. WAMP. I thank the gentleman.

Madam Speaker, it is indeed a privilege to rise on behalf of all Republicans in the House to honor Jack Kelliher. Jack, if you would please, while I'm speaking, I would ask for you to stand so that everyone in the House can see you.
